

Unknown Tableware | Jones & Walley | High Relief Pitcher | Item | 002

Shape Name

Unknown Tableware

Potter Name

Jones & Walley

Photo Type

Item - Photo

Item

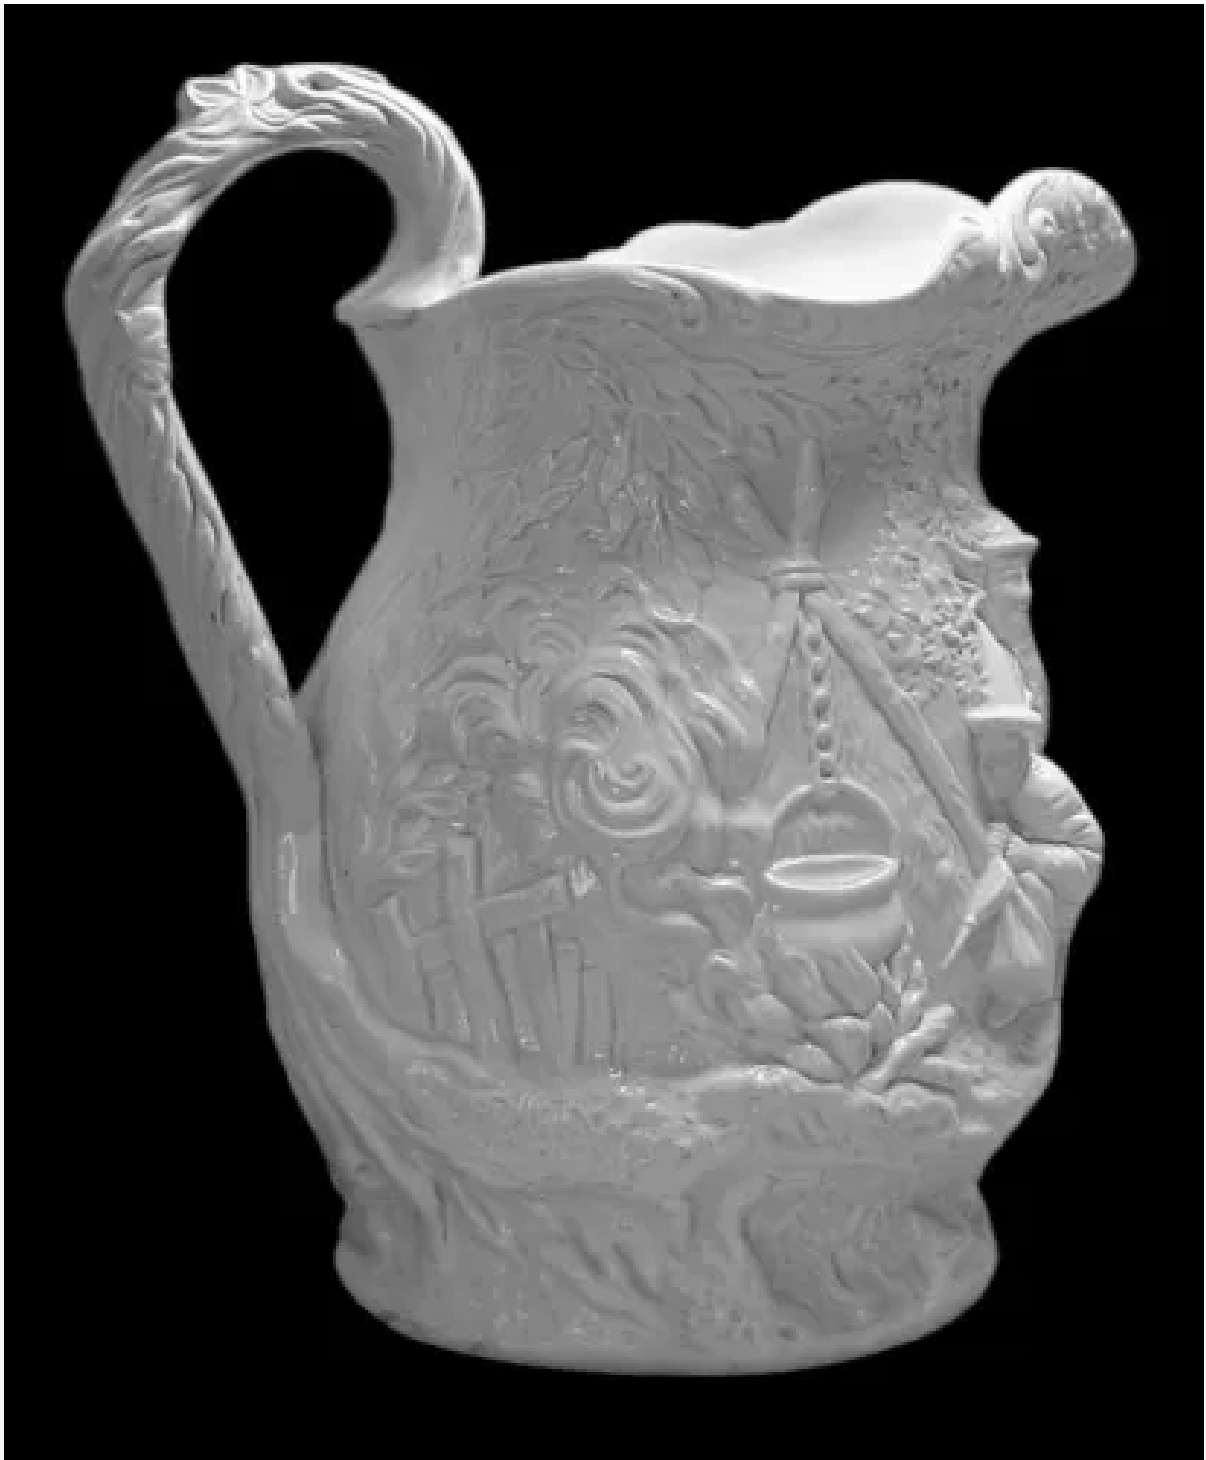

Pitcher - High Relief

Notes

The pitcher is named "Gipsey," which is the historical spelling of the word Gypsy, referring to traveling or nomadic people. The mark indicated it was published July 1, 1842. Although this is after the time when designs could be registered at the Kew patent office, this pitcher was never registered formally. Samuel Alcock & Co. also made a version of this pitcher most likely after Jones & Walley.

Parent Image

Unknown Tableware | Jones & Walley | High Relief Pitcher | Item | 001

Enlarge Image