

Richard Edwards

POTTERY LOCATIONS

Dale Hall
Start Year
1861
End Year
1861
Country
England
Location
Burslem

Notes

Richard Edwards was the son of James Edwards and was the "Son" in James Edwards & Son. He began his partnership with his father, James, in 1851 and continued the business after his father retired in 1861. He registered a shape known as Twisted Ribbon in August of 1862. All ironstone made after James' retirement is marked James Edwards & Son.

Richard Edwards
Dalehall
Longport
Staffordshire

Enlarge Image

Related Shapes

Pond Lily Pad

Twisted Ribbon